In the mean time... here's a letter from Froggie:

Nispy,

Hey guys! Well I got your amazingly stupid newsletter and I love it! Does that make me a loser? Well I guess I want to subscribe (only because Kris is making me!). I hope to get another issue soon- Wait, no I don't! Anyways-Go to hell! Well I better go, I've got more important things to do!

Later,
Tammy

P.S. Does this subscription come with a supply of available guys? If not, I don't want it!

P.P.S. [That's Post Post Script, Tammy, not Post Script Script] I don't want to be a Nispy fan Club member, I just want the subscription, okay? One more thing- here's my down payment, [$0.02] I'm not sure if I want to give up $2.00 yet.

Dear Miz Tammy ("Froggie") BorgesOn,

The Amazingly stupid Column

Many people have probably seriously debated thinking about maybe asking me "What's the deal with 'trout?'" This may explain:

In other news, the next album (Sick Nipple) should begin to start entering the passage which will lead it to an area where it will meet a secret agent who may try and lead it to a beginning recording stage... or not. Well I'm Proud to say I capitalized the first 3 words in this sentence.

Any way, we noticed how every fing person that read this piece of s news letter liked Yosh's stupid a column.

Well, to appeal to your s*y tastes, we will try to model this fing news letter more around Yosh's mother fing ahole column. If you don't like it, you can shove it right up yours.

"YOU MAY BE WONDERING WHAT THIS SAYS"

You may not be wondering how me & Mooch get along... well, were not without our spats..(see next page.)

NEARLY IMPORTANT!!!

OK...so you subscribed...now what...well, it seems odd making a news letter for 4 or 5 people, so we need you! That's right. As official Nispy fans, N.N.L. subscribers, and complete losers, you must encourage others in the pointless need for this crap. Drug your friends and tell them you need them to send money to their congressmen to get the Farvegnugen bill aproved (It's $2, but you can tell 'em it's $3 and keep a buck). Please have all money sent to...
